

Table of Contents

Introduction

Part 1: Christian Morality	1
I. Christian Morality: Biblical Orientation and Human Evaluation	3
1. Introduction to the Problem	3
2. Moral Norms of Behavior and Judgment in the Bible	5
3. The Problem of "Reason and Faith"	9
4. Moral Rightness	14
II. Vatican II: Salvation, Personal Morality, Right Behavior	19
1. God's Salvation	19
2. Personal Morality	21
3. Right Behavior in the World	23
4. A Complementary Reflection	26
III. Our Image of God and the Morality of Innerworldly Behavior	28
A. A COMMANDING GOD?	29
1. Fundamental Option and Categorial Behavior in the World	30
2. The Law of Graduality and the Graduality of the Law	33
3. Moral Theology and the Image of Evolving Man	37
B. A RULING GOD?	39
1. God's Lordship and the Human Disposition of Self	39
2. God's Transcendence and Human Self-Transcendence	41
C. IMAGE OF GOD AND IMAGE OF THE HUMAN PERSON	44
1. God – The Transcendent Mystery	45

2.	An Overly Anthropomorphic Image of God	46
3.	An Image of the Human Person "Not in the Image of God"	47
IV.	God's Incarnation in a Human Morality	50
1.	The Second Vatican Council: The "Divine Law" and Human Morality	51
2.	God's "Innerworldly" Rights and Human Morality	57
V.	Christian Faith and the Disposing of Human Life	62
1.	Fundamental Problem: Does Christian Faith Make the Normative Decision?	66
	(a) Theological considerations against an excessive demand on faith; (b) Theological recourse to the Bible and its effective history; (c) Theological recourse to the Christian belief in creation; (d) Recourse to the God of the covenant; (e) Recourse to the death of Christ
2.	The Contribution of Christian Faith	74
	(a) A convergence on the basis of faith; (b) Situations of conflict; (c) Attitudes of faith; (d) Faith, fundamental experience, philosophy
VI.	Early Christianity in Search of a Christian Morality: 1 Cor 7	83
	A. 1 COR 7	84
1.	What Matters: "Belonging to the Lord" (1 Cor 7.17–24)	84
	(a) What matters "above all"; (b) What is "also" important; (c) Christocentrism and theocentrism; (d) What matters: marriage, celibate life, virginity?
2.	"Belonging to the Lord" – Marriage (1 Cor 7.1–16)	86
	(a) Married life (1–9); (b) Separation, divorce, remarriage (10–16)
3.	"Belonging to the Lord" – Marriage and Virginity	88
	(a) The virgins (25–35); (b) The engaged and widows (37–40)
4.	"Belonging to the Lord" – Fornication and Christian Freedom (1 Cor 6.12–20)	90
	(a) "Everything is allowed me – but not everything helps me"; (b) Fornication; (c) Moral argumentation and moral paranesis
	B. THEMES OF A CHRISTIAN FUNDAMENTAL MORAL THEOLOGY IN LINE WITH 1 COR 7	92
1.	The Call to Belong to Christ	93

(a) What matters above all: "belonging to Christ";
(b) The function of Christian requirements
2. What is "also" Important even if not "Above All"	94
(a) Various models of what matters "above all";
(b) The manifold requirements which "also" matter for the Christian
3. The Person that Belongs to Christ and His Acts	95
(a) A necessary distinction; (b) The transcendent "morality" of the person of the Christian; (c) The self-realization of the person and his deeds; (d) Moral goodness and moral rightness – what matters "above all" and what "also" matters; (e) Moral goodness as a question of salvation; (f) Salvation morality and social morality
4. Presuppositions of Free Belonging to Christ and of its Categorical Realization	97
(a) The conscience; (b) Meta-ethical, metaphysical and epistemological problems
5. Categorical Norms of Conduct of the Christian	98
(a) The problematic of a normative morality of conduct;
(b) Consequences for a Christian normative morality
Part 2: The Moral Self of the Christian	103
VII. Morality: Person and Acts	105
1. The Problem	105
2. Problems of the Twelfth Century	106
3. Jesus	109
4. Reflections	110
5. Consequences	114
6. What is Morality?	116
VIII. The Phenomenon of Conscience: Subject-Orientation and Object-Orientation	118
1. The Phenomenon of Conscience: Various Aspects	118
(a) Conscience and orientation for the conduct of life;
(b) Conscience and practical reason; (c) Conscience and religious experience; (d) Conscience – superego – ethical maturity (immaturity)
2. The Subject-Orientation of the Conscience	123
(a) The problem; (b) Subject-orientated conscience – the basic phenomenon; (c) Problems of moral theology in history
3. The Object-Orientation of the Conscience	127

(a) The evaluative and normative function of the conscience; (b) Conscience in a specific situation; (c) The problem of "universal norms and the conscience in a concrete situation"; (d) Compromise and the conscience
4. Conclusion	132
IX. Conscience in a Pluralistic Society	134
1. Conscience	135
2. Pluralism	136
3. Conscience and Moral Pluralism	138
4. Pastoral Aids	140
X. Self-realization and Self-alienation	143
1. Psychology or Ethics?	143
(a) Psychological or human self-realization?; (b) Philosophical reflections; (c) Which self-realization?
2. Which Image of Man?	147
(a) Responsible self-realization; (b) Self-realization as radical openness; (c) Vertical self-transcendence as self-realization
3. Conversion and self-realization	150
(a) Conversion to the true self; (b) the self in contradiction; (c) Instructions
Part 3: Christian Moral Life	155
XI. Continuity in the Church's Moral Teaching? Religious Liberty as an Example	157
1. Introduction to the Problem	157
2. The Theme of the Council's Declaration	159
3. Tradition and Innovation in the Council's Consciousness	161
4. The Council's Change-around	163
5. Centuries-long Traditions as Background to the Council's Change-around	167
6. Final Considerations	170
XII. Married Love: Christian Pluralism in the Twelfth Century	173
1. The Court Chaplain (Andreas) and the Church's Teaching on Marriage	174
2. The Countess (Marie de Champagne) and Courtly Love	177
3. The Opinion of the Critical Ethicist (Peter Abelard)	180

4.	The Mystical Theologian (Hugh of St Victor)	182
5.	Pluralism and the Understanding of Marital Love	186
XIII.	Disposing of Human Life: Recent Problems in Bioethics	189
1.	What do "Bioethics" and "Disposing of Human Life" Mean?	189
	(a) Bioethics; (b) "Disposing of human life"
2.	Problems of Today's Bioethics	192
	(a) Killing and allowing to die; (b) The beginning of life: disposing of embryo and fetus; (c) The problem of extracorporal fertilization; (d) Gene research and gene technology
3.	Who Decides?	198
	(a) The decision with regard to the patient;
	(b) Consultations and guidelines
XIV.	"Catholic" Medical Moral Theology?	202
1.	Medical Ethics	202
2.	Theological Medical Ethics	204
3.	Catholic Tradition	206
4.	The Church's Magisterium	208
	Acknowledgments	211