

| | |
|---|----|
| INTRODUCTION | 5 |
| ABBREVIATIONS | 7 |
| CHAPTER I: | |
| PRAGMA-LINGUISTIC ANALYSIS | 9 |
| 1.1 Methodological outline | 11 |
| 1.2 Overall observation about the narrative context of 12,44-50. . . . | 12 |
| 1.3 Pragmatic notion of narrator's introduction 12,44a. | 16 |
| 1.4 Pragmatic of the discourse 12,44-50 as a whole. | 18 |
| 1.4.1 Based on syntactical observations. | 18 |
| 1.4.2 Semantic observations | 21 |
| 1.5 Pragmatic of 12,44b-46: Believe in Jesus because who believes in Him believes in the Father and finds light | 24 |
| 1.6 Pragmatic of 12,47-48: Believe in Jesus because who does not believe in Him is subject to judgment | 31 |
| 1.7 Pragmatic of 12,49-50: Believe in Jesus because He has spoken God's word and has brought eternal life offered by the Father . . | 39 |
| 1.8 Conclusion: Desired effects of Jesus' discourse: to believe Him as the Revealer sent by the Father to bring eternal life to the world | 43 |
| | |
| CHAPTER II: | |
| JESUS' CALL TO FAITH NARRATED IN JOHN 1-12 | 45 |
| 2.1 Methodological outline | 47 |
| 2.2 General observation on the narrative nature of the FG and the narrative strategy of believing in John 1-12 | 48 |

| | | |
|-------|---|----|
| 2.3 | Function of the Prologue 1,1-18 in narrative strategy and its relation to 12,44-50 | 50 |
| 2.4 | Belief and unbelief - plot development and main characters | 52 |
| 2.4.1 | Opening episodes: witness of John the Baptist 1,19-34 and witness of the first disciples 1,35-51 | 52 |
| 2.4.2 | Responses to Jesus within (2,1 - 3,36) and outside (4,1-54) of Israel. | 54 |
| 2.4.3 | Faith in conflict 5,1 - 10,42 | 57 |
| 2.4.4 | Believing is life and Jesus is resurrection and life 11,1 - 12,43 | 62 |
| 2.5 | Detailed narrative analysis of 12,44-50 | 65 |
| 2.6 | Conclusion | 67 |

CHAPTER III:

JOHN 12,44-50 AS META-LEVEL-TEXT

TO JOHN 1-12: PERSPECTIVE OF THE RELECTURE 71

| | | |
|-----|--|----|
| 3.1 | Methodological outline | 73 |
| 3.2 | Jesus and the Father | 77 |
| 3.3 | Jesus the Savior of the world | 82 |
| 3.4 | Jesus as light for the world's darkness | 85 |
| 3.5 | The word of Jesus will judge on the last day | 89 |
| 3.6 | Conclusion: Final Call to believe in Jesus | 91 |

CONCLUSION 95

BIBLIOGRAPHY 97

INDEX OF AUTORS 107

INDEX OF CITATIONS FROM THE GOSPEL OF JOHN 111

